TASTING NOTES

A firm favourite of ours and quite possibly the greater population due to its inherently lovable nature. A definite inclusion on our list of 'comfort wines', Main Divide Riesling is so easy to enjoy.

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"Pale gold in colour, the nose erupts with vibrant aromas of orange zest, citrus blossom, and pink grapefruit, speckled with dashes of lime sherbet, frangipani, and fond childhood memories of pineapple Fruju on a summer's day. In the mouth there is a pleasing tension, a rich honeyed palate framed with charming sweetness and a lick of bracing acidity, adding structure and length to the long and elegant close."

5 Stars & 94/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, June 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"Gorgeously fruited and seductively fragrant, showing grilled pineapple, mango, orange peel and warm spice aromas on the nose, followed by an opulent palate that's filled with rich fruit intensity combined with subtle sweetness and juicy acidity, making it delectable and highly enjoyable. Style: Medium. At its best: now to 2030."

5 Stars & 18.5/20 (93) Candice Chow, Raymond Chan Reviews, July 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"Bright, even, pale yellow with depth and a green sheen. The nose is full, with lush aromas of mango, kumquat, sweet floral, honey and citrus. Medium-full bodied, medium-dry to taste, aromas of mango entwined with kumquat, honey, frangipani and citrus zest. The flavours are complex and lightly savoury; honey richness and fruit weight provide substance flows along a zingy acid line. This rich, medium-dry style Riesling is complex with tropical and citrus lead, enriched by honey and savoury botrytised elements, driving a charming, long finish. The grapes were picked in stages; some parcels were left to hang and harvested with a portion of noble botrytis. The free run juice was cool-fermented 12% alc, 24 g/l RS."

92/100 Cameron Douglas MS, June 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"Bright, fleshy and fruity wine with a core of varietal fruit flavours of apples and lemon, white fleshed pomaceous fruits and honeysuckle. An off-dry wine touches the palate with an immediate contrasting rush of acidity, then flavours that mirror the bouquet. Delicious, fresh and ready with best drinking from 2024 through 2029."

Joelle Thomson, drinksbiz Magazine October/November 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"Main Divide Riesling is North Canterbury's best-value Riesling, hands-down. Lush, fleshy and textural, it has intensely powerful ripe mandarin aromas, luscious lemon zeta flavours and the ability to age for seven to eight years plus. This is New Zealand's most consistently delicious Riesling under $25 every year."
