TASTING NOTES

A new wine in the Lapierre lineup, "Le Beaujolais" is a selection of declassified Morgon along with fruit from granitic parcels just outside the cru boundaries. A sort of mini-Morgon, "Le Beaujolais" is sweetly perfumed of ripe cherries and turned earth, backed by a vibrant freshness and silky, caressing tannins. Best of all, it exhibits the pleasure factor we expect from every bottle bearing the Lapierre label.

89/100 Vinous (2023 Vintage)

"The 2023 Le Beaujolais, which debuted after the devastating 2021 vintage forced Lapierre to introduce a new wine to his lineup, comes from 1.5 hectares dedicated to this new cuvee. It has a lovely, heartwarming bouquet with red cherries and just a faint hint of autumn leaf. The palate is well balanced with crunchy red fruit and a pinch of white pepper, vibrant on the finish. Delicious."
