TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"Nebbiolo is a very eclectic variety. From clay and limestone hills of medium consistency, it extracts plenty of trace elements that enrich its structure; from grounds rich in quartz sands and silt, it takes fragrant and fruity scents. The presence of the Michet grape variety, characterised by small and sparse bunches, enriches the colour and extract of the wine. This blend creates a wine of great completeness and harmony, that can fully and immediately express its bouquet.

The colour is ruby, veering towards garnet red. The aroma combines the fruity scents of raspberry with the ethereal, spicy notes of violet and vanilla. This wine has a wide range of flavours and the taste is harmonious and balanced, with graceful, never-too-prominent tannins and delicate woody notes."

90/100 Jeff Porter, Wine Enthusiast, July 2026 (2023 Vintage)

"That lifted floral opening is the first thing and it is genuinely pretty, the kind of nose that sets a tone and sticks to it. The palate takes a slight turn toward darker fruit territory with a chewy quality that gives the whole thing a satisfying grip and depth. Light on its feet at first and then quietly more serious than it looks."
