TASTING NOTES

The Fonterutoli estate is located in the heart of the Chianti Classico DOC in Tuscany and has remained in the same family for 24 generations. The Mazzei family owns 117 hectares of vine, divided in 120 parcels all harvested by hand. Grapes are vinified and matured separately in order to add complexity to the wines.

Made with 90% Sangiovese, Fonterutoli is the little brother of Castello Fonterutoli and the Benchmark of the estate. Black cherry, bramble and spice with hints of tobacco. Round palate with ripe tannins and a touch of spice on the long finish.

92/100 James Suckling (2018 Vintage)

"A tight, linear red with plums and hints of walnuts and herbs. Some bark, too. Medium-bodied, tight and juicy with a chewy undertone. Some orange peel. Slightly austere now, but a lovely foil to food. Drink or hold."

92/100 Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (2018 Vintage)

"The Mazzei 2018 Chianti Classico Fonterutoli shows a classic bouquet with tart berry fruit, forest floor, bitter almond, blue flower, cola and grilled herb. The wine presents a classic, cool-vintage profile that suits Sangiovese very nicely as it pulls out the bright, red berry energy that is inherent to this variety. The acidity and bright fruit presented here would make a great companion to chicken roast with potatoes."
