TASTING NOTES

This is the original Supervenetian created by Masi in 1964 and internationally recognised as a wine of “stupendous body and complexity”, the prototype for a new category of wines from the Veneto inspired by the Amarone production method (Burton Anderson). Its own production method was described by Hugh Johnson as “an ingenious technique”.

Full bodied, smooth and velvety, but approachable and versatile in its food pairings. Combines simplicity with style, strength and majesty.

Winery notes (2021 Vintage)
"Rich, smooth and velvety, yet approachable and versatile at table. Marrying simplicity and grace with strength and majesty. Born in 1964, Campofiorin is one of the world’s best-loved traditional Italian classics, internationally recognised as a ‘wine of stupendous size and complexity’, the creator of a new category of Veneto wines inspired by the Amarone technique (Burton Anderson). "

91/100 Campbell Mattinson, The Wine Front, October 2023

(2018 Vintage)
"This is developed and a little agricultural but the array of flavours is pleasing and more. Meat, red and black cherries, orange blossoms and game, with assorted herb and fennel-like notes drifting throughout. The finish is drying but it holds its shape, and the fruit remains juicy. I'd drink/buy this in a heartbeat but then I'm not a score-whore; it's all about the flavours."

91/100 JamesSuckling.com (2018 Vintage)
"Spicy cherry aromas with earthy and dried-flower nuances, following through to a medium body with well-integrated, fine tannins that just tighten a little at the end. Persistent fruit. Corvina, rondinella and molinara. Drink now."
