TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)
"The name Falanghina likely derives from the stakes, known as “falange,” that have been used since ancient times to support the grapevines. It’s a wine of great pleasure and spontaneity, with the aroma of small white flowers, tropical fruits, and citrus. A sincere and refined ambassador of Campanian white grape viticulture.

Fresh and fruity with strong and persistent notes of citrus, tropical fruits, peach, banana and white flowers. Very fresh and persistent with a pleasant aftertaste of tropical fruits. Pair with seafood salads, shellfish, white fishes, grilled white meats."

93/100 James Suckling (2025 Vintage)
"Clean and floral, with a mineral character and hints of citrus and white stone fruit. Medium-bodied, with a lightly phenolic texture adding grip and dimension. Focused and fresh."

91/100 Vinous (2025 Vintage)
"Smoky crushed peach meets minty herbs, citrus zest and crushed rocks as the 2025 Falanghina del Sannio blossoms in the glass. This is energetic and mineral-driven, with savory yellow apple and pear set against a pulse of brisk acidity. It finishes saline and loaded with tension."
