TASTING NOTES

Famille Paquet, a 30-hectare estate in Davayé, Mâconnais, was founded in 1980 by Jocelyne and Michel Paquet as Domaine des Valanges. Now managed by their three sons—Jean-Baptiste, Mathieu, and Camille—the family is committed to organic farming and a less interventionist approach to winemaking. The brothers are passionate about their terroir and share a vision of producing exceptional Burgundy wines that are accessible to all.

Mathieu Paquet's years of experience travelling and learning about the wines of the world translates well onto his family's little wine, a Pinot Noir. It shows spice, balanced weight and a juiciness perfect for those wanting to discover the French Pinot Noir.
