TASTING NOTES

Matias Riccitelli is a madman in Mendoza. Young and full of energy, Matias is crafting a range of wines that are challenging many of the preconceptions of the Mendoza region. His wines are made with a gentle hand and show a more raw and unpolished side of the region. That is to say, his wines feel like they were grown, not made. In a sea of over-ripe, over-oaked Mendoza Malbec, they offer a refreshing change of pace.

The Hey Malbec! is his wine meant for early consumption. It's an excellent example of fresh-faced Malbec that is near impossible to put down.

Winery notes (2024 Vintage)

"Malbec is the Argentinian most emblematic grape and we attempt Hey Malbec! to be its truly great interpretation. Red fruits combine with floral aromas and black pepper. The wine shows soft and ripe tannins that leads us to a sweet and opulent finish.

50% of the grapes comes from the Uco Valley, on a majority of calcareous soils and 50% comes from Luján de Cuyo on loam clay soils. These vineyards are located between 950 and 1.400 masl. In our vineyards, we do not use any herbicide or systemic products, managing them in an agro-ecological way.

We vinify a 20% with whole cluster and the rest is destemmed. The grapes head up in a natural way by gravity to small
