TASTING NOTES

Brewery Notes

"Pale Ale is easy to make. Making it great is something else. And like one of the most beautiful places in the USA - Monument Valley - this namesake American Pale Ale is deceptively simple but one hell of a beautiful drop. A stratum of our fave American hops - El Dorado and Citra - it radiates orange and lemon before plateauing on ripe, dank undertones. Crack into it, and you'll be hopping into the saddle with a "Giddyup" before you know it."
