TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2016 Vintage)

"Initial aromas of breadcrumbs, fresh brioche and almond paste give way to elderflower and jasmine, then to fruit such as white peach and watermelon. Notes of garrigue at dawn complete the ensemble. The palate is generous, ample and supple in structure, reminiscent of the cotton flower. Floral, aniseed and mentholated nuances bring lightness and freshness. The finish lingers on a delicate bitterness evoking fresh almonds."

5 Stars & Number 2 Cuisine Champagne Tasting, October 2025 (2016 Vintage)

"Pale in the glass with a lovely doughy and creamy nose with hints of toast and white florals. The palate is rich and opulent with golden apples and biscuit flavours that are elevated by the bright acid profile. Concentrated, polished and altogether beautiful."

93/100 Tom Hewson, Decanter UK, September 2024 (2016 Vintage)

"Grand Vintage 2016 sums up the year's strong suits very neatly - beautiful ripeness without heaviness, compact build and fine ageworthiness. It's a characteristically clean-cut, snappy vintage from Moët, with aromas of fresh baguette, satsuma, sweet red apple and strawberry, all framed with the toasty sourdough aromas typical of the house. There's some concentration and vinosity lurking here, even with the house's delicate style and pinpoint, meringue-soft mousse. This seems
