TASTING NOTES

It's back! After sitting out the difficult 2023 vintage, one of our longest standing Chardonnay favourites has returned, and we're pleased to have it back on the floor.

Morton Estate Black Label has been one of our most reliable best sellers for years, offering exactly what so many Chardonnay drinkers are looking for. Rich fruit, subtle oak, a creamy texture and excellent value.

The outstanding 2024 Gisborne vintage has given this latest release an extra lift, with beautifully ripe fruit bringing plenty of flavour while retaining freshness and balance. Expect ripe stone fruit, hints of butterscotch and gentle toasty notes wrapped around the full bodied, creamy style that has made this wine such a consistent favourite.

If you've enjoyed Morton Black Label in the past, you'll be pleased to see it back. If you're looking for a dependable, generously styled Chardonnay that won't break the bank, this is well worth a spot in the fridge.

Winery notes (2024 Vintage)

"Full, rich and toasty with hints of butterscotch and grilled stone-fruit. A complex balanced wine, this seamlessly textured creamy Chardonnay has great finesse."
