A properly bottle fermented and aged NZ bubbly, this is quite impressive for the dollars and has the full Vino Fino recommendation.

Winery notes (2018 Vintage)

"Since 1978, Morton has produced exceptional wines from New Zealand's finest wine regions, with the Black Label representing the pinnacle of the range. This sparkling wine is crafted true to French tradition, including 2.5 years ageing in bottle, before being riddled and disgorged.

A time-honoured blend of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, this elegantly structured wine has a fine bead and creamy mousse. Extended ageing on yeast lees adds a rich complexity, with notes of strawberry, brioche and honied cream."

4 Stars Cuisine Méthode Traditionnelle Tasting, November 2024 (2018 Vintage)

"It's pale gold with a copper cast, with a slightly reduced nose alongside rich aromas of strawberries and creamy chocolate. The palate is dry and fresh with lovely freshness thanks to the fantastic acid profile. Well weighted and lengthy."
