TASTING NOTES

Trophy for Champion Emerging White Wines - Aotearoa Regional Wine Competition 2024
Gold Medal - Aotearoa Regional Wine Competition 2024

The Albariño grape, originating from the coastal region of Biaxias on the North West coast of Spain is fast becoming a trendy and popular variety around the world, and it seems to be finding a home here in New Zealand. This is a fantastic release from Mount Riley and as always with their wines, offers terrific value.

Winery notes (2024 Vintage)

"Our 2024 Albariño is made from grapes grown on Mount Riley's St Andrew Vineyard south of Blenheim township. Aromas of lemon, lime and stonefruit. The palate is medium bodied with a brisk, firm freshness in the mouth. Dry with ripe fruit flavours firm acidity, and a salty saline finish.

Albariño can be served as an aperitif or matched with food. Known as Spain's 'seafood wine', Albariño is perfect with shellfish and seafood, salads and pasta. Best pairings include oysters, crab, prawns, mussels, white fish, fish cakes, seafood pasta and risotto, sushi and sashimi, chicken, and creamy cheeses."

5 Stars & 93/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, July 2024 (2024 Vintage)

"Pristine and elegantly lifted, the bouquet shows green rockmelon, fig, crunchy apple and jasmine nuances, leading to a finely textured palate that's lively and lingering. The wine offers lovely fruit purity with excellent structure, making it delightfully appealing. At its best: now to 2027."

5 Stars, Number 3 & Best Buy, Cuisine NZ & International Albariño, February 2024 (2024 Vintage)

"A lovely high-toned wine that is vibrant and expressive from the get-go with fresh peaches and bright citrus on the nose and through the palate which is flavourful and long. Bright and juicy with wonderful linearity and concentration."
