TASTING NOTES

Gold Medal - New Zealand International Wine Show 2023
93/100 - James Suckling Tasting Report 2024

Roaring Meg may be the entry level Pinot from Mt Difficulty but it punches well above many other wines from Central Otago. Made in a 'drink-now' style it has a sweet-fruited and super smooth palate with the classic Central Otago notes of berries and dried herbs. Coming from a top producer, Roaring Meg is a no-brainer when you need a crowd pleasing, great tasting, easy-drinking Pinot Noir.

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Roaring Meg Pinot Noir 2022 features red, blue and black berry fruit aromatics typical of a warmer vintage. The palate is harmonious with rich dark berries and a savoury line underneath. A hint of spice and dried thyme complement the succulent fruit. Fine tannins frame the wine with a great flow and finish.

Roaring Meg Pinot Noir will improve for 3-5 years given optimal vintage and cellaring conditions."
