TASTING NOTES

It's no secret that Marlborough wineries are facing oversupply issues, and as such we are seeing some sharp offers hit the market. Whilst many of these 'deals' are at the bulk, mass produced end of the market, this wine is not one of those!

In fact, we would go as far to say that this wine sits near the top of the tree when it comes to premium Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc, and indeed under its original label was priced accordingly.

Of course, under this Mystery offering we can't disclose the identity, other than to say we expect you will be very happy when all is revealed.

We can't tell you where it's from.

We can't reveal who made it.

But we can tell you this - it's received 5 stars and 95 points from some of the top wine critics in New Zealand.

Bursting with tropical fruit, citrus zest, floral passionfruit and a salty, refreshing finish, this 2023 Mystery Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc has serious pedigree. A touch of oak adds palate weight and texture, while the vibrant acidity keeps it crisp and lively. It's layered, complex, and incredibly drinkable.

And the best part? It's just $14.99.

Only the label is hidden. The quality is unmistakable.

5 Stars & 95/100 Bob Campbell MW, The Real Review (2023 Vintage)

"Balancing sweetness and acidity to allow each to contribute requires a skilled artist/artisan. The winemaker who made the final blend in this wine deserves a medal. The sweetness is subliminal while the acidity offers energy and structure with great discretion."

---

5 Stars & 95/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, March 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"Offering terrific fruit purity and intensity, the wine shows kiwifruit, feijoa, green rockmelon and lemon zest aromas. The fabulously flavoursome palate delivers excellent vibrancy together with fine texture and juicy acidity, finishing long and delectable. At its best: now to 2030."

5 Stars Michael Cooper (2023 Vintage)

"This generous, harmonious wine was harvested from mature vines at Renwick, the Waihopai Valley and Dillons Point. It is mouthfilling, fleshy and sweet-fruited, with deep, ripe tropical fruit flavours, balanced acidity and a rounded, dry, finely textured finish. Slight biscuity notes add a distinct touch of complexity."

92/100 Erin Larkin, RobertParker.com, December 2023 (2023 Vintage)

"piercing and fresh, with cassis, coriander/cilantro, white pepper, nashi pear, green apple and lemongrass. In the mouth, the wine is silky and fine, nicely tailed by chalky phenolics through the finish. Good drinking here! Classy."

---

Julia Harding MW, JansicRobinson.com (2023 Vintage)

"This has impressive weight and depth on the palate while retaining the vibrant green flavours of Sauvignon, plus a salty, mouth-watering finish. Long, with a nicely chewy, textured finish."
