TASTING NOTES

"The noble cousin of Limoncello" is the term that best describes this traditional citrus-flavoured liqueur. Named after Citrus Medica, a lemon-like variety of citrus that contains very little juice and grows abundantly around Lake Garda in northern Italy, its essential oil aroma is obtained by steeping the thick peel of the fruit in Italian grain alcohol.

Intense, crystalline, and clean. Acqua di Cedro brings out all the freshness of the citron fruit, with its intense citrusy aroma. A clean, regenerating flavour like a gentle summer breeze. Best enjoyed chilled to enhance the subtle flavour of citron, it is the perfect base for mixing thirst-quenching fruity cocktails
