TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"The joy of Pinot Noir is its consistent evolution. Working with newer clones has changed the shape of material at hand for winemaker Todd Stevens. As these additions to the Pinot vineyards settle down, we see a more fragrant, more supple wine in our glass.

This wine is what Neudorf Pinot is all about. Cocoa powder tannins are interwoven with notes of summer berries, warm spices and seductive leather. Tom's natural "Moutereness" offers a sophisticated restraint, keeping this lush and moreish wine beautifully balanced. Thoughtful use of oak frames this Pinot brilliantly without commanding the experience, leading into a long, velvet finish.

This wine is generous without ever being overt which makes it the ultimate food wine. BBQ'd venison, wild mushroom risotto, a hunk of parmesan or a rare but personal favourite - beef tallow brownies. This pinot will cellar with grace and poise."

Rated Excellent & 93/100 Cameron Douglas MS, April 2024 (2023 Vintage)

"There's no mistaking the sense of place when first nosing this wine, scents of clay and stones then red fruits of plum and cherry. A soft layer of wood smoke with baking spice moments then a fruit spice layers in breadth and depth to a fresh vibrant bouquet. A dry wine with moderate weight touches the palate first then a flourish of red fruit flavours, rose and wood spices follow adding complexity and power. A slightly lighter weighted wine that has complexity and texture. Tannins have a fine grainy feel and acidity carries flavour and crispness throughout the palate. Well made, still very youthful, an excellent food wine choice with best drinking from mid to late 2025 through 2030+."

93/100 Mike Bennie, The Wine Front, January 2025 (2024 Vintage)

"This is a sappy and textural pinot noir, a bit of coffee and mocha overlaid a bit distracting for dark cherry, cola, cranberry and sarsaparilla characters, but the main gist is of a grippy, savoury red wine that delivers on its promise of the variety. You can lay back and settle into a big glass and watch something unfurl with primary fruit, undergrowth and truffle notes, sweet spice, the woody bits in there too. It works out mellow and satisfying. You'd be pleasing by your investment here."

17/20 Richard Hemming MW, JancisRobinson.com, June 2025 (2023 Vintage)

"Strawberry and balsamic, the classic summer combo. Light-touch oak - spiced but not overt - and light tannins too, that just give a little feathery touch to the finish. Moderate length, there's still room for the fruit to develop."
