TASTING NOTES

Made from the grape of the same name, this is desert in a glass! Deep dark rich colour with a sweet nose and long lingering sweet finish. Try this aged wine with a blue veined cheese, some toasted almonds or over vanilla ice cream.

92/100 Robert Parker's Wine Advocate (NV)
"The House of Osborne was founded in 1772 by Thomas Osborne and has been continuously family owned and operated ever since. The non-vintage Pedro Ximinez 1827 is amber/brown in colour with sweet candied aromas. Viscous in texture, it offers sweet flavours of fig, apricot, and raisins."
