TASTING NOTES

This is a different red wine from Spain made from the exciting Graciano grape, showing the typical character of the variety. Bright ruby in colour in the glass, it displays intriguing aromas of small country flowers and ripe blueberries. Vibrant on the palate, medium-bodied and more Atlantic than Mediterranean in character. With remarkable freshness and a delicious touch of bitterness and fine tannic grip on the finish. An ideal red to have with fish like cod or tuna, as well as dishes with a spicy or slightly sweet edge.
