TASTING NOTES

94/100 Angus Hughson, WinePilot.com, May 2022 (2021 Vintage)
"Bright mid crimson in colour before launching into a beautifully bright and expressive modern Grenache style. It opens with vibrant aromas of red liquorice and cardamon spice with subtle earthy tones in the background. An almost pinot noir like palate follows that is fleshy with good fruit depth and power in a slinky, silky package before finishing with exceptional length. Delicious to enjoy now and over the next five years."

94/100 QWineReview.com (2021 Vintage)
"Raspberry coulis and rhubarb set the scene and get the juices flowing before the red fruits whip up a frenzy. Red apples tuck in behind too. There is a little firmness on the mid-palate but this calms. Some dusty dirt road earthiness, soft baking spices just purr throughout. Long and moreish, this is a damn enjoyable Grenache. Well played Ox."
