TASTING NOTES

Highly polished, utterly charming and incredible value for money; Rully Les Chaponnières impresses in every vintage.

The well-respected winemaker Paul Jacqueson is gradually handing over the reins of this domaine to his daughter Marie, a future superstar who has already been named Young Winemaker of the Year by the Hospices de Beaune. Based in Rully - opposite the town's dojo interestingly - their wines rival many of those produced by their more expensive neighbours on the Côte d'Or.

This Burgundy vineyard was planted in 1985, so the 30-year-old vines are producing rich and concentrated grapes. Silky smooth and brimming with hedgerow fruit, blueberries, herbs and spices; this Pinot Noir is seriously overperforming for its price.

16/20 Julia Harding MW, JancisRobinson.com, January 2024 (2022 Vintage)

"Lightish crimson. Red but not sweet fruits. Deliciously scented and so fresh. Lively, mouth-watering, fine and sufficient tannins. Juicy and full of energy."
