TASTING NOTES

Penkridge Farm nestles between the spectacular Pisa Range and Lake Dunstan in the middle of Central Otago.

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)
"Vintage 2023 kicked off with a series of early frosts, this was followed by a hot, dry summer and almost drought conditions with minimal rainfall from December to mid February. Just prior to harvest we worked around the return of the rain and a series of frosts at the end of the season to once again keep us on our toes. The harvested fruit (100% clone 10/5) was a beautiful, high quality crop. It was delivered to our winemaker Matt, who has made us a classically elegant and very approachable Central Otago Pinot noir.

Ruby red in colour, the nose offers red berry fruits, cherry and bramble characters along with complex savoury element. The palate is layered with red fruits supported by fine tannins and a soft, silky texture. The finish is long and balanced with fine acidity and lingering flavour."

5 Stars & 96/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, July 2025 (2023 Vintage)
"Gorgeously composed and styled, the wine shows dark berry, warm spice, mushroom, cedar, and rich floral aromas on the nose. The concentrated palate exhibits seamless flow backed by fleshy texture and layers of fine tannins, making it wonderfully structured with a sustained, velvety finish. At its best: now to 2036."

5 Stars & 18.5+/20 (94) Candice Chow, Raymond Chan Reviews, December 2025 (2023 Vintage)
"Moderately deep ruby-red, even colour throughout. This has a rich, alluring bouquet, with aromas of black cherry, blackberry, lifted herbs and delicate spice. Medium-bodied, aromas of black cherry and blackberry entwined with cinnamon, nutmeg, liquorice and fresh thyme. The silky mouthfeel flows effortlessly with dark fruit and herb, gentle spice elevates and lingers to a savoury, long finish. Match with duck breast and lamb chops over the next 5-8 years. Fermented to 14.1% alc."

93/100 David Walker Bell, WineFolio.co.nz, May 2025 (2023 Vintage)
"A wine from Central Otago from the 4 hectare vineyard block on Penkridge Farm, made by Matt Connell. A deep burgundy colour in the glass. Beautifully varietal in the bouquet, with cranberry, plum and black cherries, then toasted spice and rose petal florals. A young wine, with a coltish, coiled power into the medium-bodied palate. Led by a lick of vibrant acidity, the wine unfurls with air, with the fleshy fruit flavours shining. A subtle backbone of tannic grip sits well with the savoury elements that come forward. A touch of pepper, provencal herbs and black olives. The finish comes together well and has elegance and length."
