TASTING NOTES

From the multi-award winning Peregrine winery in Central Otago, Saddleback Pinot Noir 2024 is in fine form. Crafted from a mix of Bendigo and Pisa fruit, it is showing bright fresh aromas of red and black berries, florals and a touch of spice. On the palate it moves into dark fruits melding with savoury elements of spice and herb giving lovely balance and persistence.

Winery notes (2024 Vintage)
"Fragrant with red berry, cherry and floral notes, this generous and instantly appealing wine is layered with boysenberry, subtle spice and hints of wild thyme. A pure expression of Central Otago Pinot Noir. Luscious and fruit focused with great flavour and concentration.

Hand harvested from Central Otago, Peregrine Estate Bendigo (48%) and Pisa (52%). Whole bunch and destemmed ferments. Wild fermentation in open top fermenters, with pump overs and gentle plunging. 10 months in older French Oak."

5 Stars & 93/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, November 2025 (2024 Vintage)
"It's beautifully expressed on the nose, with aromas of sweet cherry, blueberry, thyme, game, and toasted almond, with a lovely floral overtone. It's silky-smooth and plump in the mouth, displaying excellent weight and fine flow, splendidly framed by polished tannins, making it harmonious and structured with a lengthy, delectable finish. At its best: now to 2031."
