TASTING NOTES

Gold Medal - New Zealand International Wine Show 2020, 2022 & 2023

One of the last remaining family-run Grand Marques. Equal blend of Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay.

Joelle Thomson, drinksbiz Magazine, December 2024 (NV)

"Fifth-generation family champagne houses are few and far between – another reason to admire Champagne Pol Roger. This wine was famed as the favourite drink of the late Sir Winston Churchill, who clearly enjoyed the complexity that the Champagne region's three grapes bring to the party. Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay all contribute toasty dry flavours, a creamy full body and savoury aromas to this outstanding champagne."

5 Stars & Top 5 Cuisine Champagne Tasting, November 2024 (NV)

"A golden glow in the glass with a toasted lifted creamy complexity on the nose that comes through onto the palate. The palate is rich and decadent with rounded acid, a creamy texture and a fantastic core of fruit that lingers through to the finish."

Tom Stevenson (NV)

"A persistent mousse of tiny bubbles, a classic Pinot-dominates blend, showing power and depth..."

Serena Sutcliffe MW (NV)

"That totally lovely floral bouquet is immediately familiar to regular drinkers of Pol - it opens out to you with notes of acacia and honey. I find it a totally and utterly 'more-ish' Champagne."
