TASTING NOTES

In 2003, Jules Stephan bought a sheep paddock in the Waitaki Valley after soil tests revealed conditions with striking similarities to Burgundy. What followed was a leap into the unknown: six hectares planted to Pinot Noir, Pinot Gris and Chardonnay, in a region still finding its identity as a place for wine.

The first vines went into the ground in 2005. The first Q Wine vintage came five years later. More than two decades on, the same vineyard continues to surprise us. It began with a curious resemblance: the natural form of a vine echoing the letter Q. The founder’s background in quantum physics and fascination with the extraordinary energy of quasars brought another dimension. One inspiration discovered in the vineyard by an observant eye, the other reaching far beyond it. Two perspectives brought together in a single letter.

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)
"Born of a single vineyard, hand harvested and hand pruned, our wines reflect the unique terroir of Waitaki Valley. Q Rosé, crafted from 100% Pinot Noir, shimmers with a delicate blush. Notes of watermelon, baked apple and wild strawberry linger with graceful intensity. A touch of French oak brings quiet depth and texture. Dry and elegant, a Rosé made for moments shared."

5 Stars & 94/100 Candice Chow, CandiceWineChat.com (2025 Vintage)
"This Waitaki Pinot Noir Rosé is textural, with a chalky thread that underlines ripe, pure fruit and unfolds deep floral fragrances and an opulent finish. Gentle aromas of strawberry, cherry, cherry blossom and rose."

92/100 Cameron Douglas MS, October 2025 (2025 Vintage)
"A core of ripe raspberry and cherry fruit flavours framed by a line of mineral stone, even chalk, crisp, refreshing, salivating and dry on the finish. A complete wine that can be enjoyed on its own or with food. A taut texture as the wine touches the palate with the core red fruit flavours delivering contrast and mineral then a touch of spice, all adding to the length. Well made with best drinking from 2025 through 2027+."
