TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2019 Vintage)

"Concentrated, ripe, dark fruit with violet and black plum characters backed up with supple tannins. A rich and complex wine that is beautifully balanced and will mature comfortably for a decade or more in the cellar."

Reviews for the 2018 vintage below...

4 Stars Michael Cooper (2018 Vintage)

"Estate-grown in the Bridge Pa Triangle, the 2018 vintage was barrique-aged for 10 months (35 per cent new). Full-coloured, fragrant and supple, it has strong, plummy, spicy flavours, fresh and youthful, and gentle tannins. Already enjoyable, it should be at its best 2021+."

90/100 Bob Campbell MW, The Real Review, April 2019 (2018 Vintage)

"Moderately concentrated syrah with plum, blueberry, blackberry, pepper and spicy oak flavours supported by ripe tannins and good acidity. A subtle suggestion of fresh herbs adds complexity. Should develop well with bottle age."
