TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Intense ruby red colour. Hints of flowers and red fruit aromas emerge. The palate is rich, with smooth tannins and well-balanced acidity. The savoury notes are typical of the terroir of Brolio."

91/100 Michaela Morris, Decanter UK, February 2024 (2022 Vintage)

"While Francesco Ricasoli reports that quantities were slightly down and harvest was a bit earlier than usual in 2022, he is among those who reference the late August rain as a saviour of the vintage. And this year's Brolio is simply textbook Chianti Classico, offering a fragrant juxtaposition of moist soil and spring blossoms on a well-padded backdrop of currants, cranberry and sour cherry. Tightly knit with an elegant frame of light, powdery tannins and firm, steely acidity. Really quite impressive for its almost 500,000-bottle production."
