TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"A warm & productive summer put plenty of flesh on this wine. The fruit is issued from Rippon's mature vines, whose root hairs have invaded the schist rock below. Lurking towards the end of the first mouthful is substantial phenolic power and it soon starts to take charge of the wine... and give it its sense of place"

95/100 Campbell Mattinson, The Wine Front, June 2024 (2022 Vintage)

"The intensity of flavour here is right up there. There's a certain softness to the acidity, though the wine's backbone lacks for nothing, and the way apple, pineapple, lime, mandarin and honey characters pour it on, start to finish, is really something. The finish has a talc-like dryness, the fruit itself a suggestion of sweetness, the wine as a whole as convincing as it is lovely."
