TASTING NOTES

From the Alban hills in Italy's Piemonte, Barbera is a lighter wine than Barolo, but offers great quality and versatility and can be drunk sooner. From the excellent family owned organic Rivetto estate where everything is dictated by nature.

Reviews for the 2020 vintage below...

92/100 James Suckling (2020 Vintage)

"A perfumed nose of red cherry, crushed raspberry and fresh sage. Medium-bodied with lovely freshness and energy. Bright, with fine, creamy tannins. Tasty barbera. From organically/biodynamically grown grapes with Demeter certification. Drink now."

91/100 Jeff Porter, Wine Enthusiast (2020 Vintage)

"Zio Nando" is named after the man who planted this vineyard in 1944. These old vines produce rich and concentrated wine. The wine opens with dark plum and macerated black cherries with sweet spices and dried flowers. The palate is luscious and rich with copious amounts of mixed berries and a touch of minerality all wrapped up nicely with a pop of acidity on the finish."
