TASTING NOTES

This ever popular Central Otago Rosé is set to become even more popular with its snazzy new bottle and label. Inside it delivers the luscious strawberries and cream textures and flavours that has lent the appeal over the years. There's a light lick of citrus and mineral to draw out, and gently dry out, the finish making it ever so moreish.

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"Every year, the complexity in our Rua Pinot Rosé comes from diverse vineyard selection across two sub regions - Bannockburn and Pisa. This season, our Pisa vineyards contributed most of the fruit, bringing energy and tension to the acid structure; and Bannockburn brings the spice!

Wildly exotic floral bouquet of jasmine, lily, magnolia and rose, with ripe strawberries, watermelon and cardamom. The centre palate is creamy and concentrated with fine skin tannins and balancing bright and juicy acidity."

"A pale pink example with lots of ripe strawberries and red plums on the concentrated and expressive nose. The full palate is bright and juicy with a lot of sweetness, well balanced by the lifted and steely acid present."
