TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2019 Vintage)

"Sweet blue and black berries up front open up to savoury spices and a hint of violet floral notes. This is classic Margaret River Cabernet. It's an elegant wine, with sweet berries up front mixed with savoury spice flavours of cinnamon, mocha and cedar. There's also hints of juniper. The tannins are silky soft and lush, they combine with the acid to give this wine a wonderful structure and length. This wine is complex and will reward your patience over the next ten + years with proper cellaring, if you can wait for that long."

93/100 Ray Jordan, RayJordanWine.com.au (2019 Vintage)

"A vintage that produced wines of elegance and style, and this generously texture full bodied wine is a classic example. Leafy blackcurrant and black olive aromas with a little bay leaf and light graphite. The palate is beautifully poised and controlled with fine-grained oak and fine chalky tannins working harmoniously. Black fruits emerge throughout. That graphite edge follows the palate through to its very long finish."
