TASTING NOTES

A refined and beautifully expressive Nebbiolo, showing fragrant violet and fresh red fruit aromas with subtle mineral and savoury undertones. The palate is medium-bodied, fresh and wonderfully linear, with bright acidity and fine, elegant tannins providing structure and balance. Twelve months in large French Allier oak adds gentle complexity without overwhelming the purity of the fruit, leading to a poised and persistent finish.

Winery notes (2024 Vintage)
"From the moment Antonio Scarpa set foot on the Piemontese hills, he chased the dream of establishing a small winery that would accumulate the best traditions in the region in order to share the most cherished Italian beverages.

The modern Scarpa winery is the work of Mario Pesce, a wine maker from Nizza who took a small wine cellar and converted it into an established company with best-in-industry standards. Scarpa believes in the classic expressiveness of Piedmont wines, in their natural ability to evolve and age, proving that only time – and constant care – can unveil the noblest essence of our land.

From the most renowned hills of Langhe, an intense and delicate Nebbiolo with an outstanding structure and captivating persistence. Bric du Nota distinguishes itself for ruby red turning into light crimson; the nose is intense and delicate, with a bouquet of violet; in the mouth is very dry with its traditional tannin when young; over the years it acquires special balance and harmony adequately persistent."

92/100 Jeff Porter, Wine Entusiast, January 2026 (2024 Vintage)
"Tough vintage, joyful wine. Fresia and framboise drift from the glass with easy allure, alpine herbs quietly giving the prettiness a tart edge. On the palate cranberry and fresh strawberry lead, the green bite of strawberry tops sharpening everything before acidity pops through cleanly. Chill it and let it find a cold salmon salad or roast chicken."
