TASTING NOTES

The Sensi Family first began business in 1895 with Pietro Sensi. Pietro's sons, Vittorio and Armido, continued their father's business and founded Fratelli Sensi. With the third generation, Pietro and Giovanni, greater focus was placed on the wine making business and the Fratelli Sensi wines became famous throughout Tuscany. With the fourth generation, Massimo, Marco and Roberta, who joined the company in 1987, the Sensi name became successful in international markets further to developing their wine-making, farming and technology. They now own 65 hectares of vineyards in Tuscany.

A real oxidative take on the Vin Santo here. It has nice fruit aromatics of golden raisin and baked apples which highlight the oxidative notes nicely. Opens up to give hazelnut, roasted almonds, salted caramel and clover honey. Gorgeous sweetness on the palate which leads to a lot of lip-licking and more sipping. A lovely sweet wine.
