TASTING NOTES

Long-time Marlborough farmers, the Jones family have three vineyards from which they source fruit for their Starborough label, as well as growing fruit for other notable labels. With Two Rivers winemaker Dave Clouston making the wines, they seem to be on a winning formula, having picked up multiple Gold Medals for previous vintages. It's vibrant and intense, full of lush tropical fruits with underlying herbs and a streak of salinity. Starborough could well be the Star Sauvignon of the vintage.

Winery notes (2026 Vintage)
"A refreshing wine bursting with aromas of pungent passionfruit and tropical fruits with fresh herb and lime notes. The bright pristine palate is filled with juicy, powerful passionfruit and tropical fruit flavours. This is a concentrated rich wine finishing long with fresh mouthwatering acidity."

5 Stars & 94/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, July 2026 (2026 Vintage)
"Intensely aromatic and enticing, the bouquet shows kiwifruit, passionfruit, green rockmelon, and kaffir lime notes, followed by a splendidly expressed palate filled with youthful fruit flavours. It's punchy and lingering with delectable flavours. At its best: now to 2029."

(2026 Vintage)
"This Sauvignon Blanc is zingy, with taut acidity and zesty spice. It has vivid layers and bursts with fruit, finishing with a salivating linger. Distinctive aromas of gooseberry, blackcurrant, tomato vines, lime, zest and blossom."

90/100 Cameron Douglas MS, October 2026 (2026 Vintage)
"An attractive bouquet of citrus and white fleshed stone fruit, a layer of leesy complexities and silty stony soil ideas bring life and vigour to the wine's aroma package. Just dry with a satin touch on the palate, contrasting acid line carries flavours and mouthfeel with a tropical fruits finish. Balanced and well made with best drinking from day of purchase through 2028."
