TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2025 Vintage)

"Carefully picked, foot stomped, hand plunged, naturally fermented and aged in neutral oak for 12 months — this full-bodied Malbec is anything but stock-standard.

Deep purple in colour with a notable oaky hit in the nose, our 2025 Malbec has been described by many vino lovers as "intriguing." It lives up to its reputation, too — packing a lingering punch with rich & smoky dark fruit characters (red and dark berries, plum & Blackboy peach) and chewy tannins, but also offering a light & salivating juiciness.

The 2025 growing season was long with warm days & cool nights, creating a natural acidity and abundance of fruit concentration. In other words: the perfect storm for creating a vibrant, expressive, and thought-provoking new generation red."

Rated Excellent & 94/100 Cameron Douglas MS (2025 Vintage)

"Vibrant and glowing hues of purple and ruby with a classic pink rim lead to a bouquet of blackcurrant, plums and chocolate, there's a sweet blackcurrant then spice and dry stony silty soil ideas. A dry wine on the palate, very youthful and taut, very fruity and classically vibrant with bold tannins and definitive acid line. Dynamic and new, varietal and smashing on the palate. Best drinking from day of purchase through 2034+."
