TASTING NOTES

Gold Medal - New Zealand International Wine Show 2025

Under the ownership of the Foley group (Martinborough Vineyards, Vavasour, Mt Difficulty) and with winemaker John Kavanagh (ex-Neudorf) onboard, Te Kairanga have really upped their game in recent years. John Martin is Te Kairanga's top Pinot Noir and crafted from their best vineyard parcels.

Winery notes (2024 Vintage)
"Te Kairanga John Martin Pinot Noir 2024 is named after the founding father of Martinborough, John Martin and is crafted from the best vineyard parcels from his original landholdings and some of the oldest vines in the region.

A cherry red Pinot Noir bursting with a deep complex nose of brambly red fruits, exotic spices, toasted almonds, charcuterie and forest floor aromas.Fine linear tannins lead to a flowing minerality and an enticing deep fruit finish. This wine is best enjoyed alongside slow cooked game-y dishes, like venison or mushrooms."

95/100 Emma Jenkins MW, Decanter UK, October 2025

(2024 Vintage)
"The higher proportion of Abel clone used – almost 50% for this vintage – adds an exotic spice dimension to the aromas and flavours. Lovely layers of damson, black cherry, redcurrant, blueberry, star anise and Christmas spices, earth and sweet hay. Juicy mid-palate and firm, persistent but very fine tannins drive the long finish. A smart wine from a great year."

94/100 Stephen Wong, The Real Review, November 2025 (2024 Vintage)
"A selection of the best parcels from the Todd, McLeod and Home vineyards, 2024 is the result of smaller crop with a bit of January heat followed by a long, dry season thereafter. The clonal mix included Abel this year. Everything is hand-picked, hand-sorted and fully destemmed. The extraction was via hand plunging and fermentation was by native yeasts. The wine aged for 10 months in oak, 21% of which was new.

Lovely violets here alongside purple fruit, boysenberry and raspberry. Vibrant and elegant, very balanced and with sleek submerged tannins. The structure creates excellent flow, allowing the fruit to unfold long and late on the palate. Excellent acidity followed by a gentle grip right on the end, resulting in an elegant mid-weight pinot noir with presence."

93/100 David Walker Bell, WineFolio.co.nz, December 2025 (2024 Vintage)
"A Pinot Noir from Martinborough: named after the founding father of Martinborough, John Martin – winner of a Gold Medal at NZIWS this year. A striking deep burgundy purple colour in the glass. Scented with blackberry, cherry, raspberry, damson and violet florals. Quite tight and youthful, with a structure of grippy but fine tannin, moderate acidity and plenty of spicy, savoury tones – cloves, nori, salami and mushroom – to offset that ripe juice. Medium-bodied but with good concentration and depth, and a long, dry finish."

5 Stars & Top 10 Cuisine Pinot Noir Tasting, April 2026 (2024 Vintage)
"Dark with aromas of chalk, red cherry and graphite on the nose with a wet- stone minerality that is mouthwatering and inviting. The palate is ripe and plush with elegant lifted fruit flavours and some grip from the acid. The sweetness lingers alongside vanilla and spice on the finish."
