TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2016 Vintage)

"All winemakers are a bit obsessed with Pinot Noir, because it is the most challenging variety to grow and to make and very unforgiving of mistakes. For our style of Pinot Noir we prefer the flavour profiles from the southern side of Marlborough. These soil types are much older than the Wairau flood plain and have lower fertility and a much higher clay component which gives the wines more depth and structure."

Rated Outstanding & 96/100 Cameron Douglas MS, December 2018 (2016 Vintage)

"Distinctive, pure aromas of Pinot Noir with pressed red roses, raspberry and dark cherry, dark red apple skin and crushed rock mineral core. Aromas of baking spices and toasty wood add complexity, depth and allure. Dry on the palate with flavours of red berries, cherries, mineral and wood. Youthful with firm tannin and acid voices suggesting some cellar time still in play. Persistent, pure, youthful and yummy! Decant for service. Best drinking from 2020 through 2028."

5 Stars & 94/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, August 2018 (2016 Vintage)

"Elegantly styled and inviting, the bouquet shows spiced cherry, plum, olive and floral characters with hints of dried herb and almond. The palate delivers excellent purity and roundness, beautifully complemented by fine texture and polished tannins. The wine is wonderfully proportioned and poised, offering refinement and stylish complexity. At its best: now to 2023."

"This delivers a very complete and fruit-focused impression with the right balance of fresh red cherries and berries and more savory, woody and lightly earthy notes. The freshness and elegance is impressive."

93/100 Bob Campbell MW, The Real Review, January 2019 (2016 Vintage)

"Bright, fresh and flavoursome Pinot Noir with cherry, raspberry, red rose and spicy oak with a suggestion of savoury and dried herb character. An appealing and distinctive wine that is accessible now but should develop well with bottle age."
