TASTING NOTES

We continue to shout from the rooftops about getting people to drink more Riesling, and this is a prime example why!

A special aged release. This is a small batch wine from a selected parcel on a hillside vineyard on Blacks Ave that winemaker Haydon Good thought was too good and different to include in the Crater Rim Waipara Riesling. Here the vineyard is a mix of calcareous/limestone and clay soils, which makes the wine a little richer in texture and body, with good phenolics, and the flavour profile is a little riper.

At seven years, this is a shimmering gold colour with lime marmalade, honey, and preserved lemon flavours. There is just a hint of botrytis sweetness, but the minerality balances that out perfectly and is best described as off-dry. A deliciously aged Riesling that once again shows the extraordinary quality for the dollar you can get from this variety in Waipara.

5 Stars & 95/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, June 2022 (2019 Vintage)

"Splendidly complex and enticing, the bouquet shows grapefruit, lemon curd, subtle spice and toasty notes, leading to a beautifully flowing palate that's juicy and vibrant. There's a hint of sweetness which is brilliantly countered by lively acidity,
