TASTING NOTES

Gyles Webb abandoned his accounting career in Durban to become a winemaker. In 1983, with the help of his wife's family, the McLean's, Gyles bought Thelema. The beginning of a family legacy. The manor house was restored and the first wines under the Thelema label were released in 1988. By the mid 90's Thelema's wines sold out within a month after release, making it one of the most sought-after wine estates in South Africa. The Webb family describe Thelema as "one of the most beautiful places on earth". As Thelema in Stellenbosch continued to flourish, Gyles embarked on a search for an additional property in order to establish a second vineyard. In 2002, the Webb family purchased an idyllic farm with an undulating landscape, in the cool Elgin region, creating ideal grape growing conditions.

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Fermented and matured in French oak barrels, this medium bodied Chardonnay presents aromas of citrus and hints of peach on the nose with nuttiness on the mid-palate. It is fresh with an underlying minerality but balanced by a long creamy finish.

De-stalked, crushed, pressed & settled in stainless steel tanks before the clear juice was fermented in 228 L French oak barrels. Small portion whole bunch pressed. 10 months in French oak barrels, 35% new, and the balance in 3rd/4th fill."

91/100 Decanter UK, March 2025 (2022 Vintage)

"Ripe stone fruit, guava and grilled nectarines create a vibrant, clean profile. Toasty oak and smoky reduction add complexity, with a rich, balanced finish."
