TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2024 Vintage)

"Lifted lemon and orange blossom aroma with nougat, almond, tarragon and marjoram. There is a sweet note of candied citrus peel, with hints of salinity and savoury reduction. The palate is expansive with huge volume. The citrus and fresh herb medley is complemented by hints of almond, cashew and hazelnut with a touch of cinnamon. The finish is super tight and long with fine pithy tannins, salivating threads of acidity and phenomenal length. Cellar 6-12 years.

We filled 6 concrete egg fermenters with whole-bunch pressed Chardonnay juice from Two Terraces. From the outset, one vessel shone above the rest. With searing intense aromas and flavours, harmonic power and laser-like precision. Introducing EGG No.3."

5 Stars & 96/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, October 2025 (2024 Vintage)

"Elegantly composed and restrained, the wine displays grapefruit, nectarine, lemon pith, savoury pastry, and wet limestone nuances on the nose. It is equally enticing on the palate, showcasing impressive depth and a multi-layered mouthfeel. Gorgeously poised with seductive complexity, it promises to evolve graciously. At its best: now to 2034."

Rated Outstanding & 95/100 Cameron Douglas MS, November 2025 (2024 Vintage)

"Complex, sophisticated, international and new. Aromas of fresh orchard fruits and spice, an engaging positive reductive quality, citrus peel and crumbled clay stony soils ideas. Dry, taut, textured and complex. Excellent mouthfeel and length, plenty of poise with a saline quality to the acidity, deliciously fresh and lengthy a wine with flavours that mirror the bouquet and mouthfeel that keeps bringing me back to taste again. Very well made with best drinking from 2026 through 2030+."

5 Stars & 96/100 Candice Chow, CandiceWineChat.com (2024 Vintage)

"An inaugural release of this single-ferment sourced from Two Terraces vineyard, 100% Mendoza clone. A wine of excellent presence, with an oily mouthfeel, cohesive satin texture, seamless acidity and a lasting impression."

18.5/20 JoelleThomson.com (2024 Vintage)

"There's a compelling tension between richness and restraint in this wine, which is a limited bottling with 100 dozen drawn off exclusively for wine club members and restaurants in New Zealand and Australia, making it something of a rare hatching from the Golden Egg programme, which has been a long term favourite of sommeliers.

White peach and concentrated lemon aromas are underpinned by subtle flinty undertones and a whisper of fresh brioche, which is lifted by bright acidity to bring lingering flavours to each sip. It's 100% Mendoza clone Chardonnay grown on the Two Terraces Vineyard and was made in one of six concrete eggs."
