TASTING NOTES

The ocean-breeze-cooled Margaret River is Australia's finest wine region. Here, Virginia Willcock, one of the most awarded winemakers in Australia, makes this delicious Cabernet-Merlot blend. Expect excellently woven hints of plum, mocha and cedar.

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"Son of' the Vasse Felix Cabernet Sauvignon. This regional blend incorporates more opulent fruit from each of the Vasse Felix Vineyards. Generous portions of Merlot contribute to a succulent wine with approachable tannins.

Light, fragrant raspberry and blackcurrant coulis with a hint of rhubarb and a note of rose petal. A complex array of savoury nuances, including Mexican chocolate, native potpourri, and a hint of fresh mushroom and leather. A soft, fresh entrance reveals bright fruit and a build of dusty tannins, finishing powdery and dry. The elegant yet juicy core boasts fresh raspberry, blackcurrant, and a lingering hint of native potpourri."

93/100 Ray Jordan's Top 100 Reds 2025 (2023 Vintage)

"One of the best cabernet merlots under this label yet released. Plush fruit flows seamlessly through a smoothly structured palate. Ripe, sweet fruit delivered with medium intensity and a trace of oyster shell minerality. Bright and bursting with energy, with structure and poise rarely found at this price point."

Reviews for the 2022 vintage below...

"Great colour and aromatic intensity with dark berries and a hay, dried herb signature. The core scent within the bouquet is that of stones and clay then fruit and wood. Excellent weight and intensity on the palate with core flavours reflecting the bouquet, there's an abundance of tannins and acidity supported by core fruit flavours of berries and plums, wood spices and some earth smoke qualities. Well made, complex, dry and lengthy. A wine that is still very youthful needing cellar time to bring together all the attributes. Best from 2028 through 2036+."
