TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)
"Chardonnay vines have found their soil of choice on the Mâconnais slopes of the ancient Châtellenie de Vérizet, in Burgundy. A limestone terroir and generation of determined winegrowers have given rise to rounded, full-bodied, rich and subtle white wines. A great balance between fruit and minerality Yellow crystalline hue with subtle golden glints. An intense nose bursting with ripened fruits layered over hints of white-fleshed fruit (wild peach, pear). Charming and well-rounded on the palate, balanced out with nuances of citrus fruits."

91/100 Anna-Christina Cabrales, Wine Enthusiast, July 2025 (2023 Vintage)
"A straightforward yet elegant expression, with aromas of white peach, delicate florals, and a hint of white mushroom. The palate is soft and refined, fresh fruits carried by a gentle salty minerality and citrus pith. Light almond notes emerge on the finish, keeping things subtle yet sophisticated."
