TASTING NOTES

The most well-known wine region in Spain is Rioja and it is home to some of the best value reds in the world including this easy to enjoy tipple. It's been a couple of years since we featured this wine and incredibly it's even cheaper than it was then! A perfect mid-week (or anytime) wine.

Situated in the Rioja Baja, this winery source its grapes from local growers. All vines are between 50 and 100 years old and grown at different altitudes and on various soil types to produce wine with complexity. Youthful and appealing Rioja with masses of sweet, perfumed red fruits to the fore.

Steve Bennett MW, Importer
"This delicious, soft, characterful, everyday-drinking wine illustrates just why Rioja is Spain's most popular red wine."

5 Stars & 93/100 Sam Kim, Wine Orbit, October 2024 (2023 Vintage)
"Offering fabulous fruit purity with elegant complexity, it's fragrant on the nose with Black Doris plum, blueberry, violet and mixed spice aromas, leading to a fruit-expressive palate that's plump and flavoursome. Beautifully structured by layers of polished tannins, making it delightfully appealing. At its best: now to 2028."

91/100 Cameron Douglas MS, December 2024

(2023 Vintage)
"Ripe and fruity, dry and textured, varietal and ready. A wine with a core of dark berries and baking spice flavours, texture from firm(ish) tannins and plenty of acidity for length. The style is classic Rioja with a dark cherry and chocolate note from fruit and use of barrel. Best drinking from 2025 through 2030."
