TASTING NOTES

From the lower third of Italy's heel, Primitivo, a genetic cousin to California's Zinfandel, thrives in the red ferrous soils and long, hot and very dry summers of Salento. An easy quaffer with aromas of red fruit, it is mouth filling and moreish with its characteristic ripe fruit sweetness balanced by juicy acidity.

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"The quintessence of Puglia in a bottle, that's what Vinuva Primitivo Salento is: an organic red wine of great complexity, presenting an intense and elegant bouquet with notes of ripe cherry, typical of Primitivo (Zinfandel) grapes. Vinuva Primitivo Salento is mouth filling, sweet and persistent, characterised by red fruit aromas."
