TASTING NOTES

Vita is a new label from talented young grower/maker/all-rounder Will Bowman. The name Vita is Italian for life and came about from having been to Italy with his partner Jane, where he worked with Barbaresco grower and winemaker Olek Bondonio, and also life in general, where he aims to capture the life and vitality that is inherent in the vineyards that he works with and bottle them in their most unadulterated form. Will is active in all facets of the vineyard and winery and is especially interested in biodynamics and organic farming.

Winery notes (2023 Vintage)

"Zoë is the first riesling from Skypunch in Omihi, North Canterbury - a vineyard we are lucky to work with. Farmed organically by ourselves and Black Estate. Zoë has a bright core of acidity, cloaked in lots of textural detail. Foot stomped and left to macerate for 6 hours. Pressed to seasoned oak for fermentation and aging for 12 months."
