TASTING NOTES

A seriously good Chardonnay. Voyager are not only in a region famous for its Chardonnay, but are renowned for their specialised and premium offerings in this varietal. Much like one of our major customer favourites, Vasse Felix, this blend from across Voyager's superb vineyards is able to capture - at a very reasonable price - much of the depth and appeal for which their $100 plus Chardonnay labels are known. A must for lovers of both Kiwi and Aussie Chardonnay.

Winery notes (2022 Vintage)

"Aromas of exotic fruits, nectarine, floral, cardamom, macadamia. The palate has a stone fruit & citrus core with a nut praline complexity.

Fruit was hand-harvested and cooled overnight, then wholebunch pressed and transferred to French oak barriques for natural fermentation. Select parcels underwent malolactic fermentation to build texture and lower natural acidity. The majority spent nine months in oak with regular bâtonnage, while 20% of the blend spent its final three months maturing in concrete."

94/100 Gary Walsh, The Wine Front, August 2023 (2020 Vintage)

"Peach, fresh pineapple, pink grapefruit, fine spicy cedar oak, a little ginger. Bright, good line of acidity, pink grapefruit and Japanese ginger, light creaminess, and a long and spicy finish. Zesty. Looked quite juicy and a little oaky initially, but given time it settled down very nicely, so perhaps leave it alone for another year or two."

93/100 Aaron Brasher, The Real Review, October 2023 (2022 Vintage)

"Plenty of citrus, stone fruit, nougat and melon skin lift on the nose, complex, layered and inviting. Powerful, full flavoured and with real purpose on the palate. There's a core of stone fruit, grapefruit pith and nougat flavours along with nutty oak and punchy acidity. Lovley texture, length and mouth-feel."

93/100 James Suckling (2022 Vintage)

"Aromas of white peach, mango, white almond, praline and a hint of cedar. Medium- to full-bodied, dense and firm on the palate, yet fresh, with steady acidity and mineral backbone. Hints of seashell, walnut and spice on the finish. From organically grown grapes. Sustainable. Drink or hold. Screw cap."
