TASTING NOTES

This well regarded Alsace domaine is run by two brothers, Maurice and Jacky Barthelmé in the village of Wettolsheim, near Colmar. Maurice, who took over here in 1984, is married to the daughter of the late Albert Mann who gave his name to the domaine. It's not a huge operation: they have 22 hectares in all, but five of these are in five different Grand Cru vineyards and a further two are in lieux-dits.

Winery notes (2019 Vintage)

"Expressive floral nose of roses and violets. The mouth is dominated by exotics fruits : mango and passion fruit, honey and spices. The wine is robust on a beautiful balance between power and sharpness."
