TASTING NOTES

Winery notes (2017 Vintage)

"While the classic expression of this famous wine style is about fruit purity and crispness, this wine represents an alternative interpretation. 'Abstract' is a departure from the norm. This wine is all about texture and layers of aromatic complexity derived from both fruit and winemaking. The Holdaway family vineyard in Dillons Point provides the pillar of blackcurrant, passionfruit and its signature salty minerality, while the 100% wild yeast fermentation in seasoned French oak puncheons offers savoury attraction and complexity on the palate."

94/100 Bob Campbell MW, The Real Review, May 2019 (2017 Vintage)

"Oak fermented and matured sauvignon blanc that's as much about texture as it is about grapefruit, guava, struck flint, mineral and passionfruit flavours. An impressive wine with power and purity."

4 ½ Stars Michael Cooper (2017 Vintage)

"Currently delicious, but still developing, the 2017 vintage is a single-vineyard wine, grown at Dillons Point, in the lower Wairau Valley. It was fermented with indigenous yeasts and matured for over a year in seasoned French oak puncheons. Bright, light lemon/green, it is weighty and complex, with ripe, tropical fruit flavours, a gentle seasoning of toasty oak, and a rounded, bone-dry, lengthy finish. Best drinking 2020+."
