TASTING NOTES

Juicy and satisfying, this is a beautiful red from the warm 'heel' of Italy. Puglia's distinctive local grape Negroamaro brings us an effortless red that is medium-bodied, with nice darkish fruit and subtle savoury undertones. From a sun-soaked climate, this perfectly balanced wine is versatile and fantastic value. Drink now with grilled red and white meats.

5 Stars Angie Atkinson, The Wine Writer (2016 Vintage)

"Negroamaro grapes from 25 year old vines, planted on clay and slit soils, are carefully vinified for 6 months in stainless tanks to enhance the unique features of this variety. The wine is rested in bottle for 6 months before release. Deep ruby in colour with rich aromas of blackcurrant, cassis, smoky graphite, and dried rose petals. The lively palate is full of juicy berries and plum, soft tannins and a dash of acidity tying everything together. The perfect accompaniment for barbequed meats or a strong flavoured cheese like stilton or cheddar. Great value at its price point."
