Winery notes (2013 Vintage)

"Kulta Tytti shows lifted, floral aromas of violets but also raspberries and chocolate. It's full-bodied, velvety and plush, ending long, with umami-like echoes of earth and cedar. This is truly a beautiful wine to be cherished now or over the following decade.

Named in our mother's memory and in her native tongue, Tytti (pronounced Too-Tee) Kulta is an unforgettable proprietary blend lovingly woven together from the best of our incomparable iron rich hillside vineyards; each part as precious as gold and in whole an extraordinary expression of Man O' War.

Our new super premium offering to the Man O' War portfolio, The Kulta series of wines are only made during the best vintages from our finest performing vineyards across the estate. Rated as Waiheke Islands best vintage to date, 2013 is where 'Tytti' (pronounced Too-Tee) Bordeaux Blend starts her Journey.

Produced in Minute quantities totalling only 150 cases, 'Tytti' is the pinnacle of our Bordeaux portfolio. Having 45 individual bordeaux vineyard blocks across Man O' War Estate, Tytti has been made from only the highest quality hand harvested fruit picked giving a true representation of what Waiheke island can offer when the weather conditions are perfect."
